

MAP KEY

- PARKING
- ROAD
- PAVED TRAIL
- DIRT TRAIL
- SIDEWALK
- PLAYGROUND
- SHELTER
- BODY OF WATER
- PARK
- BASEBALL DIAMOND

0.2 MILES

The Plaster Creek Trail starts at Ken-O-Sha Park and winds west past Eastern Avenue. The paved portion is wide enough for bikes, walkers and joggers. The dirt trail that is west of Eastern Avenue is narrow and forks with one trail ending next to a house on Union Court and the other part ends at the Valvoline Instant Oil Change on 28th Street. Keep your eyes open for deer since they frequent the woods around the trail.